National Cholesterol Month 2025

National Cholesterol Month is a public health campaign dedicated to educating people about cholesterol – what it is, why it matters, and how to manage it. Led by organizations such as Heart UK, the campaign encourages people to get their cholesterol checked and take steps to lower levels through diet, lifestyle, and, when needed, medication. More information can be found at www.heartuk.org.uk
